MAY DAY CELEBRATIONS.

French Anarchists Cause a Riot at Marseilles.

A FIGHT WITH THE POLICE.

The Commissary of the Police Captured by the Rioters.

Demonstrations Occur in Other Parts of the World but in None Does Serious Trouble Take Place.

MARSEILLES, May 1.—A large part of the working population took part in the May Day celebration today. Toward evening the crowds in the streets became very disorderly. The police tried to arrest several socialists who were waving red flags and inciting workmen to violence. The crowd resisted, and a fight in which the police were worsted followed. The hussars came to the assistance of the police and a general fight began. The rioters defended themselves with clubs and stones, and several soldiers and policemen were badly cut and bruised.

Floyd, a municipal councillor, was knocked down by the charging hussars, his clothing torn, and he was trampled under foot.

After the first charge the hussars were repulsed, and a crowd of rioters captured the police commissary, knocked him down and dragged him in the dust. He was rescued by troops before serious harm could be done him. By united efforts the military and police eventually split the mob and drove off the groups of rioters. This evening bands of ruffians made attacks upon isolated policemen and in several districts disorderly crowds are still parading at a late hour.

By Allowing an Amendment the German Army Bill Will Pass.

BERLIN, May 1.—As the day progressed there was some turbulent developments in this city. The police compelled a meeting of anarchists to disperse because the speakers were urging the soldiers not to obey the emperor. At the socialist meetings held in various halls, so far as known were not attended by disorder.

The Tagblatt announces that negotiations between Chancellor von Caprivi and progressive members of the Centre regarding territorial support for the army bill has ended. Freiherr von Schönerer, however, it is understood, proposed a motion to reduce the government demand to 30,000 men for the first year, and the government will not object to the motion. Tagblatt says a majority is thereby assured for the measure as amended.

MEETINGS IN VIENNA.

No One Was Disturbed as the Parades Moved Through the Streets.

VIENNA, May 1.—Fifty six meetings were held by workmen in this city and suburb today. The police kept out of sight and no efforts were made to disturb the meetings. At 5 o'clock this afternoon 200,000 men and women massed on the prater. They sang the "Marseillaise" and other revolutionary hymns, cheered the strikers who demanded universal suffrage and at 6:30 began a march through the city. All soldiers were confined in the barracks. As several thousand laborers passed the Emperor Franz Joseph barracks they cheered the soldiers and the soldiers returned the cheers. This incident illustrates well the good feeling which prevailed in the city throughout the day.

QUIET IN PARIS.

Several Attempts at Demonstrations Stopped Before Anything Was Done.

PARIS, May 1.—Some disorder occurred during the day in the Place de la Republique, where groups of agitators tried to create a demonstration. The police dispersed the groups and arrested a man who was unfurling a red flag. They also arrested the leader of the extremists, named Baudin, who was heading a small procession. Reports received show that but for the riots in Marseilles the day passed without serious disturbances in the provinces. At Lyons workmen stopped the tram cars, the police drove the men away, however, with but little difficulty and only two were injured and five or six arrested.

A PECULIAR LETTER.

Jesse Barton Has One on File in Washington.

It Is Said to Have Been Written to F. B. Crosswhite, a Special Examiner of the Department of Justice.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—[Special.]—Delegate Rawlins has returned to the city and will remain a week or ten days. He has secured the appointment of R. N. Wilkins on as postmaster at Mammoth, and also had a postoffice established at Eagle, Garfield county.

Colonel Lett is here again. He says he has not filed any application for any other position, but while in the city expects to look out for the interests of several friends.

A peculiar letter, to say the least, is said to be on file at the department of justice. It is from Jesse Barton, formerly a resident of Salt Lake, but now in Chicago, and a candidate for chief justice of Utah. He writes, it is stated, to F. W. Crosswhite, an examiner in the department, to look out for his interests, and promises to pay him for his services, and adds that he knows the Mormons are against him, and urges the Gentiles to stand by him, and specially requests Crosswhite to keep him posted.

O. D. Jones has been appointed postmaster at Murray, Ida., vice Swain, removed.

National Committeeman Beane of Idaho says postoffice appointments are being held up by the department on account of the rule adopted to fill only vacancies, but the Idaho contingent here is doing all it can to hurry up the changes.

Mr. Rawlins made a request to-day for a number of postoffice changes in Utah.

WILL THEY HANG?

The Lives of Two Men Depending on a Construction of the Law.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The lives of two men for murder in the state of California, and sentenced to be hanged, is depending on a free motion made today in the United States Supreme court by Attorney General Hart of that state. After these men were sentenced in the county courts to be hanged in the county jail by the county sheriff, and while their cases were pending an appeal to the supreme court of the state, the legislature passed a law directing that executions for capital offenses should be in the state prison by the warden thereof.

Judgment of the lower courts being affirmed by the supreme court of the state, counsel for the condemned appealed to the United States Supreme Court on the ground that the law directing the execution to be held in the county jails being repealed by the new law not applying to judgments rendered before its passage, sentence of the accused could not be carried out except in violation of the eleventh amendment of the constitution.

The court received the appeal and counsel was given until the 18th inst. in which to file briefs in support of or in opposition thereto.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

The Question as to Liability for Injuries Caused by a Railroad.

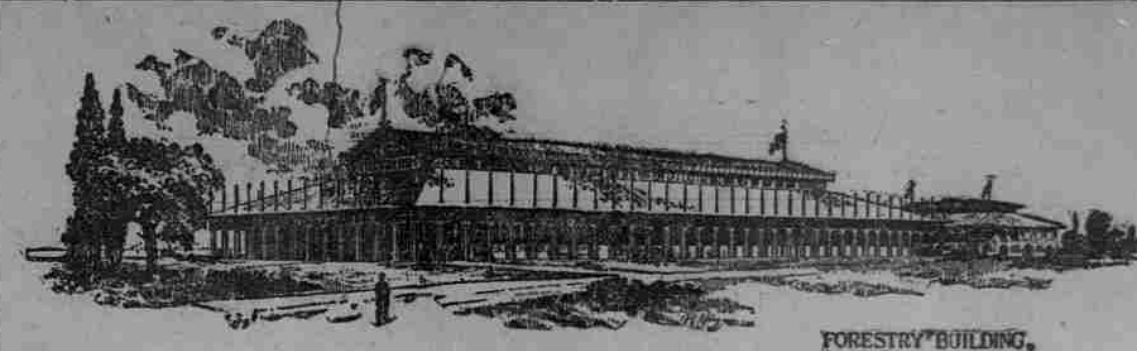

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The question of liabilities of a railroad corporation to an employee for damage received while in the service of the company is one to be settled not by local law in a state wherein the cause of action rose, but by the general law upon the subject, was the substance of a decision by the Supreme Court of the United States today, in the case of John Baugh, a fireman, against the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. The company appealed by respondent from the United States circuit court. Justice Brewer revised the principles applicable to the case at great length and said, "The opinion constitutes that the injury to Baugh was simply one of the risks assumed by him when entering the company's service." The judgment of the circuit court is reversed and the case remanded for a new trial. Justice Field dissented.

Navajo Outbreak Exaggerated.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—General Schofield received a telegram from General Crook, commanding the department of Arizona, stating that the report that he thought the Navajo outbreak was exaggerated. All necessary steps, he said, had been taken to protect the coast at great length and said, "The opinion constitutes that the injury to Baugh was simply one of the risks assumed by him when entering the company's service." The judgment of the circuit court is reversed and the case remanded for a new trial. Justice Field dissented.

MR. WRIGHT SPEAKS

Of the Remarkable Results Attained in Only a Few Days' Treatment With Drs. Mansfield and De Monco.

"Mr. Wright lives at Coalville, Utah, and is in the employ of the Home Coal company, he came to Salt Lake city a few days ago to test the skill of Drs. Mansfield and De Monco. As to whether the trial has proved to be a success, the following powerful statement will decide.

Continuing he said: "I have suffered from catarrhal affection for the last eighteen years, and many most disagreeable symptoms presented themselves. My head pained me quite frequently with what I called nervous headaches. My nose would stop up, and my throat become inflamed. Ringing noises in my ears annoyed me very much, and my hearing gradually got worse until I could scarcely hear at all."

"My stomach also got out of order. I suffered from indigestion and dyspepsia. I became irritable and restless. My sleep was fitful and broken. In fact my condition seemed quite serious. I tried several different physicians all of whom did not seem to understand my trouble, as their treatment did me no good. I then resorted to patent remedies, but with the same results—no relief."

"I was advised to try Drs. Mansfield and De Monco's treatment, and as the recommendation was strikingly strong I came direct to Salt Lake city and began their treatment. I am pleased to say that I began to improve from the first, and I feel like another person already. The headaches have stopped. Nose clear, throat all right and sleep well, and do not suffer from indigestion or dyspepsia, at all. In fact I am all O. K. except my hearing and it is improving as fast as possible in such a short time. I recommend Drs. Mansfield and De Monco to all sufferers, and that their method of treatment is both mild and soothing."
